FROM THE PRESIDENT

The ICGFM 2023 International Conference is coming up at The University Club of Washington, DC in just 3 weeks. With 100+ participants from over 25 countries and a great lineup of speakers, the event promises to be engaging and enlightening. You will broaden your perspectives on PFM and return with new ideas, new colleagues, and a new understanding of how ICGFM can help you on your professional journey.

Our Vice President of Programs, Aleksi Aleksishvili, the Program Committee, and our amazing Managing Director, Joanne Dunne, have curated a brilliant program to address the biggest issues facing governments and public financial managers today. The event has been adjusted to reflect what our members have asked for – more in-depth discussions, shorter presentations, and more networking.

We have expert panels that will address climate change, crisis management, public investment, the digital transformation of public finance, innovative data use cases, and transparency in a new era of expectations.

During the conference, I will have the honor of presenting the 2023 David M. Nummy Lifetime Achievement Award to Ed Olowo-Okere and moderating two of our panels.

I will also be sharing information about a new ICGFM initiative – International Knowledge Circles as well as our new online Diploma Course in PFM.

In these last three weeks before our signature event, I encourage you to register, invite your colleagues and friends, and reach out to let me know how ICGFM and I can make your experience more valuable.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

Laura Robinson

President, Swale House Partners, USA; ICGFM President

PFM Spotlight will not be published in September because of the ICGFM International Conference. Publication will resume with the October issue.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Call for Nominations — Deadline August 31st.

Traditionally, this is the time of year when we reach out to invite members who may be interested in serving on the ICGFM Board of Directors to submit their names for consideration. Members may nominate themselves or another active member to serve as officers and/or board members.

The ICGFM Board of Directors is composed four categories of members, each with an equal vote:

1. The ten elected officers who comprise the Executive Committee
2. Six elected representatives of the Organizational Members
3. Six elected representatives of the Individual Members
4. As many Sustaining Members who exercise their right to have a representative serve on the Board, a prerogative of that membership category as defined in the bylaws. At present there are 13 Sustaining Members.

See the Leadership section of ICGFM's website. Board terms are two-years and are staggered to ensure that only half of the Board changes in each election cycle. Positions up for election in this cycle are shown on the online form.
