Raising Integrity & Building Public Trust
Audience Question:
What percentage of countries have an anti-corruption program?
Overview: The impact of corruption

Delivery of goods & services

Political & market stability

Economy

Government services

Reputation

Infrastructure & development

Public trust

Competitiveness, business climate, & investment

Enforcement & rule of law
Corruption hinders economic growth...

Trend 1
Large private sector companies are aggressively investing in new markets/territories for growth

Trend 2
More countries have recognized the need for private sector growth through multinational companies

Trend 3
With supply side interest up and data visibility at an all-time high, companies generally opt to invest in markets who are making strides to limit corruption

Trends in Foreign Direct Investment (FDI)
...And reduces governments’ ability to meet the needs of their citizens

World’s Largest Budget Deficits

Top 50% on Transparency International CPI

Bottom 50% on Transparency International CPI
Audience Question:
Who is the most impacted by corruption?
Governments today have an opportunity to address some of the most complex challenges

- IFMIS Systems
- Blockchain
- Geospatial Technology
- e-Procurement and e-Payment Tools
- Social Media
But who must be involved in the solution?

Companies are facing unprecedented consequences; as a result they are becoming more proactive in combatting corruption.

The anti-corruption movement has come a long way in 20 years...but still has a long way to go...governments must take ownership.
And what are the building blocks of a robust integrity architecture?

Effective integrity programs must combat corruption across many dimensions

1. Leadership, Commitment & Resources
2. Regulatory Framework
3. Audit, Investigations & Enforcement
4. Procurement, Accounting & Internal Controls
5. Personnel Management
6. Transparency & Strategic Communications
7. Systems & Information Sharing
Audience Question:
Which technique has proven most successful?
Which is most commonly employed?
Thank you!

Jessica Shannon
Partner, International anti-corruption & integrity
Phone: +213 399 5596
Email: jessica.shannon@us.pwc.com